Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C. October 1, 1892.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philade lphia, Pa.

Sir:

The earnings of your refinery for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892, aggregated $19,065.24 while the expenses aggregated $26,457.82.

The law requires that the charges collected from depositors shall pay the expenses of the refinery.

You are therefore instructed to reduce your expenses approximately to the earnings for the first quarter of the present fiscal year.

Very respectfully,

E. O. Leech

Director.
